We Think and Let Think.
Romans 14:1-12

There are great differences of opinion about certain critical issues affecting all our lives in the country and in the church. These differences are made more raw by the hot political debates as we approach the presidential elections. Sometimes people ask us, how do United Methodists view this or that political issue.

We might take our cue from the Apostle Paul who wrote to the Roman Christians who were in bitter disagreement about eating meat dedicated to idols and other issues.

Why do you pass judgement on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgement seat of God. (vs. 10)

John Wesley wrote:
The distinguishing marks of a Methodist are not his opinions of any sort. His assenting to this or that scheme of religion, his embracing one method or another, his pronouncing the judgement of one man or another, are all made void by the text.
